

Northwest Regional Healthcare Coalition Spotlight

April, 2019

The NWRHCC has selected the National Association of County and City Health Officials \(NACCHO\) 2019 Preparedness Summit for the April Spotlight. The 2019 Preparedness Summit is,

A unique learning and networking opportunity for emergency preparedness officials and their partners to share perspectives and engage in dialogue on key public health preparedness issues. In an ever-changing threat environment, preparedness professionals must have the knowledge, resources, and relationships necessary to prepare for and respond to public health emergencies. Students interested in public health preparedness can also gain valuable knowledge and connections by attending this year's conference.

The 2019 Preparedness Summit theme was The Evolving Threat Environment and offered learning tracks in:

- Building & Sustaining Resilient Communities
- Enhancing Use of Medical Countermeasures & Non-Pharmaceutical
- Ensuring Situational Awareness to Support Decision-Making
- Enhancing Public Health, Healthcare, and Emergency Management
- Strengthening Global Health Security

There is something for all levels of staff in state and local Public Health, Regional Coalitions; Emergency Management; Hospital and Healthcare Administration settings.

The Summit offers countless opportunities to connect with peers across the country, and to learn through seminars, town halls, plenary sessions and demonstrations what is happening around the nation and regionally in response to ongoing threats.
