Course Announcement

L0146 Homeland Security Exercise & Evaluation Program (HSEEP)

Dates: June 15-16, 2022

Times: 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Location: James Madison University (Madison Hall, 2nd floor)
800 S Main St, Harrisonburg, VA 22807

Description: This 2-day period of instruction is for those individuals that are directly involved in the planning, design, and evaluation of training exercises. The course uses activities that will give participants an opportunity to interact with many of the templates and other materials that are provided by the National Exercise Division to ensure exercises are conducted in a consistent manner. Upon completion of this course, participants will gain a better understanding of what constitutes an HSEEP consistent exercise.

Target Audience: Emergency management personnel, public safety personnel, and personnel with primary exercise development roles and responsibilities and their supervisors; which includes those with planning, budget management, design, development, conduct, evaluation, and improvement planning of exercises.

Prerequisite: Participants are required to have completed IS-0120.c – An Introduction to Exercises: <https://training.fema.gov/is/courseoverview.aspx?code=is-120.c>

It is also recommended that participants take IS-0130a - Exercise Evaluator:
<http://training.fema.gov/is/courseoverview.aspx?code=IS-130.a>
